HOPE OUTREACH

Sweet Charity

For the past three years, Jean-Marie Seidl has passionately managed and cast vision for Sweet Charity Resale on Montgomery Rd. in Aurora. From April 2011 until April 2014 Sweet Charity was owned and operated by Hearts for Service, a 501(c)3 not-for-profit of which Jean-Marie was the founder. She had assumed all the major roles within the operation of the store, manager, accountant, inventory control, etc. and came to a point where more help was needed. Up to this point, Sweet Charity was operated entirely by volunteers with no paid staff on site.

In August of 2012 Danine Leali was hired to be the Assistant Store Manager and ease some of the burden that Jean-Marie had taken on. Danine brought much needed help to the store but after almost 18 months Jean-Marie knew a bigger change was necessary. She felt as though it was time to seek out help in a different way and approached Wayside Cross Ministries about taking over the ownership and management of the resale store.

When asked about the transition and the motivation behind it Jean-Marie had this to say, "In order to continue to grow, I felt it was time to solicit the help of another local established NFP. I admire the mission of Wayside Cross and feel it aligns with Sweet Charity's mission of helping people in need."

After many conversations and careful evaluation WCM decided to move forward and took over ownership and management of Sweet Charity Resale as of May 1, 2014. It has long been a desire of the Hope Outreach division to manage two resale locations and that vision is finally being realized.

Sweet Charity will continue on in much the same way as it has for the past three years. Danine Leali is now an employee of WCM in the role of Assistant Store Manager and founder, Jean-Marie Seidl will stay on as a consultant and passionate volunteer.

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Fortitude Matters

James Lukose
Executive Director

Rebuilding the wall surrounding Jerusalem was the most daunting challenge of Nehemiah's life. The wall's severely damaged condition and the enormity of the task at hand initially left even this ardent devoted follower of God feeling discouraged, even overwhelmed.

As the project began, adversity mounted even higher. Nehemiah and his team faced ridicule and criticism, internal strife, demanding deadlines and a tempting but devious offer of compromise. Yet Nehemiah and his men overcame every difficulty, enduring each obstacle thrown their way with courage and strength of mind and character. Their story is one of the ultimate examples of fortitude found in Scripture.

Nehemiah's narrative shares several parallels with Wayside Cross Ministries' (WCM) new building construction. The second-worst Chicago-area winter on record caused numerous delays and limited available work days. Strict new EPA regulations caused additional hardship, forcing us to excavate hundreds of tons of foundation soil and deliver it one truckload at a time to Rockford, IL, which triggered unexpected costs and challenges. Yet, like Nehemiah, the construction team's fortitude prevailed over all the challenges they encountered, keeping construction ongoing with an updated target date for completion in February 2015. These selfless, Christ-focused team members deserve our deepest gratitude for their tireless resolve in the face of unforeseen and burdensome setbacks.

Nehemiah describes the source of our committee's fortitude in Nehemiah 4:14 – "And I looked, and arose and said to the nobles, to the leaders, and to the rest of the people, 'Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, great and awesome, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses.'" When solutions to problems seemed unattainable, our construction team consistently reminded us that "nothing is impossible with God" (Luke 1:37). Answers didn't always present themselves immediately. Sometimes it meant practicing the words of Mary Anne Radmacher, who once wrote, "Fortitude is the quiet voice at the end of the day saying, 'I will try again tomorrow.'" In the end, their steadfastness kept the dream of a new building alive.

The driving force fueling our team's fortitude is the mission of WCM. Each construction team member believes wholeheartedly that the building project, when completed, will enable WCM to love and serve more of the afflicted and powerless in our community than ever before in our 86-year history. Whenever the team met new challenges, the Lord reminded the men that they weren't merely constructing a brick-and-mortar facility; they were already playing a crucial role in bringing adults and youth out of addictions, poverty, abuse, gangs, spiritual imprisonment, recidivism and other life-control issues into a transforming walk with Christ.

Our construction team is not alone. Every week, WCM ministry directors, mentors, volunteers and staff members face challenges with fortitude as they work to share the Gospel and disciple the hurting and needy. In this issue of WCM Impact, we highlight Jean-Marie, Danine, Marquerite, Ed, Tommy, Dorothy, Chris and Homer. May their stories vividly demonstrate how fortitude matters in our ministry ... and yours.

Someone Worth Knowing

Homer Easley considers himself a “short-timer” but those of us who know him don’t agree. Homer Easley has worked for Wayside Cross Ministries for over 20 years. Starting as Director of Development in 1993 Homer has worn many hats at WCM. He worked as a Development Director for six years and then retired, but as they say, “You can’t keep a good man down.” He is now employed as WCM’s IT Manager.

Just 15 months after Homer earned his degree from Aurora University he started his career with his alma mater. Spending more than three decades as a teacher of physics and mathematics and as a Dean of the School of Information Science at Aurora University and then as V.P. for Development.

Homer nursed the university computer program from its infancy into one of the broadest, most versatile programs offered by a school of its size in the United States. He introduced students to the world of computers. This was unusual at the time because most universities were still only buying computers for administrative support.

After coming to WCM as Director of Development Homer’s responsibility was to implement a fundraising program starting from the ground up. He did that successfully and much more. WCM had two computers at that time, and over the years he has installed computer servers and a network of 40 plus computers that he updates and maintains routinely. He installed new gift tracking software that we use to this day.

As we move ahead with our new building Homer is looking forward to sharing his invaluable knowledge in regards to our technology needs.

Homer has enjoyed working with the staff over the years. He says, “WCM is a great place to work, even in the background. I enjoy what I do and feel I make a positive contribution to the organization, maintaining software, the network and computers. What keeps me here is the ministry. I like what WCM does and the positive influence we have on the community. I would never want to work just to get a paycheck, I think God put us here to work at something we enjoy.”

Homer and his wife Pauline are longtime members of the Aurora Advent Christian Church and former pastor Rev. David McCarthy said, “If you have a project to do he’s the first one to arrive and the last one to leave.” We couldn’t agree more. The fortitude Homer shows every day in everything he does is catching. You can’t help but want to do your best around Homer.

This fall in honor of Homer Easley and his service to Aurora University one of the large class rooms in the new John C. Dunham STEM Partnership School will be named in his honor. Short-timer? I don’t think so, life-timer is more like it.

Annual Campaign Update

Keep the celebration going

Our 2013 Annual Campaign is three quarters of the way finished. Donations through May 31 are $546,834 and we should exceed the $600,000 goal. The number of donations is up 9% and the campaign is $65,972, or 15%, ahead of last year’s campaign.

A large, generous and growing group of supporters makes the work that WCM does possible. The Annual Campaign is the largest single fundraiser for WCM. The campaign provides 24% of the funds needed to operate Wayside Cross Ministries. Its six ministries are busy every day helping to transform the lives of the men and women WCM serves.

This was campaign number eighty-six for WCM and, like all the others, it was volunteer driven. Over 130 volunteers, many who have been working for 20, 30, 40 or even 50 years, are the backbone of the campaign. We cannot thank them enough for their contributions to WCM’s ministry.

Campaign eighty-seven will kick off in August. WCM will need your support again.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Helping the Annual Campaign is not the complicated job it once was. All you have to do is address and write a note (we supply the script) on a post card to 10-15 people who already support us, encouraging them to donate to the campaign. No phone calls, we supply all the material including stamps.

If you would like to join the group of over 130 volunteers who work on the campaign, call (630-723-3427) or email (bharper@waysidecross.org) Birnie Harper.

MASTER'S TOUCH

Ed's Story

Ed Chance has served five separate prison terms for various crimes. In early 2010, he was released after having served a 16 ½ consecutive year sentence. Ed, who became a Christian while serving that term, immediately enrolled in WCM's residential program for men: The Master's Touch Ministry. He graduated in July 2010, served six months as a post-graduate Resident Assistant, and subsequently moved into Horizon—the Master's Touch Discipleship Home in Batavia—where he continues to reside. Today, he is a warehouse manager for a custom flooring company, and a very active member of Oasis Christian Fellowship Church in Aurora. In short, Ed Chance is a fully-functioning, God-honoring, contributing member of society.

When Ed is asked about the fortitude that was required to bring about this transformation, his response is immediate: "God gets all of the glory.

I was blind. He gave me eyes to see Him. I was dead. The Holy Spirit brought me to life. He gave me peace. Providentially, through the Master's Touch Ministry, I was introduced to mature Christian men, such as Carroll Wahl, Greg Carlson, Ivan Truman and Oasis pastor Keith Schauer. These men have mentored me and held me accountable. They and many others have been there for me every step of the way. The bottom line is that no one can 'go it alone.' We all need the depth of community with which I've been blessed. That's the only way you can get through life's inevitable valleys."

Bible-based, Christ-centered man that he is, Ed, not surprisingly, summarizes his thinking with a reference to scripture: "Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us." (Romans 5: 1-5, ESV)

Amen.

Master's Touch

LIFESPRING

It's All About God

I have been the Case Manager at Lifespring Ministry for close to 20 years. My life has taken many twists and turns; I would have never made it through the trials of life without my fortitude in Christ.

I had nowhere to go but to Jesus when my sons were in trouble at school, my oldest daughter ran away from home, making the decision to raise two of our grandchildren, finding forgiveness when another granddaughter was abused by her father which caused lifelong physical disabilities, both sons went to prison, my husband was diagnosed with Hepatitis C and my most recent personal health challenges. In spite of all of these difficulties, I learned to pray and trust in God, and only in God. In our own strength fortitude is impossible, with God HE gives us the strength to move on!

I hold on to Proverbs 3: 5, 6
Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding;
in all your ways submit to him,
and he will make your paths straight.

Marquerite Blich
Lifespring Ministry staff member

NEW LIFE CORRECTIONS Tommy's Story

Tommy was in prison for the third time, and he knew he deserved to be there. No excuses, and no hope. But he remembered something...

When he was just a young man he recalls stumbling into a church and hearing the gospel for the first time. "I walked into this gathering.... I went up into the bleachers and listened to the speaker say salvation came through accepting Jesus as Lord and Savior and that He died on the cross for our sins."

Tommy said, "I accepted Jesus that evening and I had never felt such happiness, love, peace and joy as I did on that day."

End of story, right? Unfortunately, no. Tommy drifted into his old ways, and his old ways led him to prison. He seemed to be self-destructing.

But then he met Chaplain Beatty, and once again heard the gospel, during his third time in prison. This time it was different according to Tommy. He studied the Bible lessons New Life Corrections gave him, and rediscovered that happiness, love, peace and joy he experienced as a young man.

After his release, Tommy was guided by Chaplain Beatty to Wayside Cross Ministries last year. "It has been a life changing experience. I have found God again. I thank God he brought me to Wayside."

Tommy is in the final phase of his time at WCM, he's found a good job and reconnected with his daughter and his two granddaughters (his face lights up when he talks about them). And, Tommy has rediscovered the salvation God provides – he found new life.

New Life Corrections thanks you for your fortitude in helping the ministry continue to make new life through the gospel possible for those who desperately need changed lives.

Tom Beatty, Director NLC

URBAN YOUTH MINISTRY The Craft Lady

As another year of the Urban Youth Ministry READ program comes to a close, I cannot help but think of the huge impact one of our volunteers has had made on me.

Dorothy, or "the Craft Lady," as the kids call her, has been volunteering with the READ program since I started 4 years ago. Being very crafty herself, Dorothy has provided the kids in the after school program with creative and fun crafts on a weekly basis. I am always blown away by her ability to come up with crafts that are detailed and original but also easy enough for elementary school kids to master.

Not only has Dorothy been one of my most faithful volunteers, she has done so despite having many health problems over the years! It amazes me to watch her come each week with her cart of craft supplies knowing it may have been much easier for her to stay in the comfort of her own home. Her smile, love and motherly patience with the kids, encourages me to continue doing what I do.

It is because of the Lord's grace in providing exceptional volunteers like Dorothy, that the UYM READ program has had a steady and Christ-focused presence in Brady Elementary school for the past 20 years!

ELGIN CENTER

Chris Corsaut

Three years ago when I first met Chris Corsaut he reminded me of a large and lovable Harry Caray. As a graduate of the Master's Touch program Chris came to Wayside Center - Elgin as a support staff member and a resident of our discipleship house.

Since then Chris has shown all of us in Elgin what a changed life of FORTITUDE looks like on a daily basis. Not only has he conquered his co-dependency struggles that brought him to the realization that he needed to drastically alter his lifestyle, but he has also dropped over 100 pounds in a calendar year and kept it off for the past two years straight. He hasn't settled in his drive to continue growing as a disciple of Christ either. Currently he is enrolled at Judson University pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Pastoral Care.

Alongside the FORTITUDE that allows him to succeed at everything he puts his hand to, is his honest teachability. As our Discipleship House Manager, a Guest Supervisor at Wayside Center, volunteer at a local Celebrate Recovery and actively engaged in his church he has managed at this moment to earn a current 3.82 GPA at Judson University! URBAN YOUTH MINISTRIES

Do You Ever Wonder If We Are Making a Difference?

Here's what one mom wrote:

I wanted to express my appreciation for the gear my son was given. This gesture has lifted his spirits highly. He has had a rough childhood, witnessing abuse and the separation of myself and his dad...He tends to forget he's still a kid at times... However, today he was very happy and beyond excited to be part of the team. He says he is not use to wearing hats, but he was not going to take his baseball cap off.

You and those participating in this program are amazing. Again, thank you so much for all that you do.

“We thank The Lord for guiding Jean-Marie to launch and nurture Sweet Charity. She has turned over all operations, existing merchandise, fixtures and equipment valued at more than $50,000, all of which will benefit our ministries and programs,” says James Lukose, Executive Director.

This new venture fits well into the model of ministry and the core values of WCM. It will further our collaboration with the surrounding communities and allow us to have an even broader connection and impact in the Fox Valley area. Along with WCM’s other ministries, Sweet Charity will continue to be “staff lead” but “volunteer driven” with the store being operated by a passionate and dedicated group of volunteers. Included in this group are students from Waubonsie Valley High School who are in the vocational program. The students gain valuable work experience learning how to tag clothes and merchandise, operate a steamer, and learn about the retail business. The hope is that this experience will enable them to find paying jobs in the community.

Sweet Charity Resale is located at 3450 Montgomery Rd. Suite 11. The store is open Monday-Wednesday 9am-7pm, Thursday 9am-8pm, Friday 9am-7pm & Saturday 9am-5pm. Please stop by and “like” us on Facebook by searching “Sweet Charity Resale” to find great deals and support the ministries of WCM.

Building Update

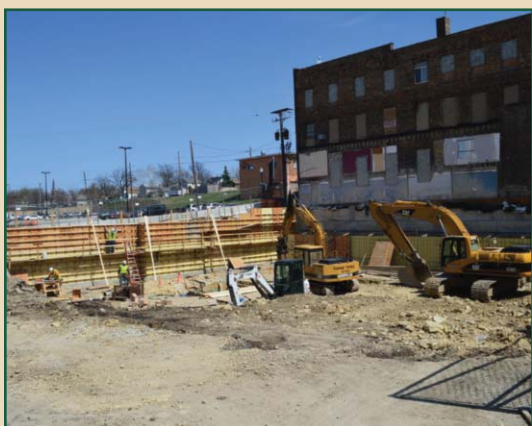

Along with the welcoming spring temperatures is a break in the weather which means things are progressing at WCM's new building site. We are finally seeing progress as we come out of the basement area and things are starting to move fast. If you haven't driven by in a while come see the progress. God willing we will complete the building in February 2015. Please pray for a successful completion with God's blessing. We still need approximately $1,000,000 to complete the project debt free. It isn't too late if you would like to be part of the project. Contact James Lukose, Executive Director at 630-723-3423 or email jlukose@waysidecross.org.
